The Lord's Day 9:00am, 10:30am, 12noon & 7:00pm
Monday ~ Friday 8:00am; Saturday 10:00am
Holydays 8:00am; 10:00am and 7:00pm

On the eight days after Christmas all the Masses will be celebrated as a Christmas Mass. This is known as the Octave of Christmas. We would encourage families and individuals to attend one of these Masses during the Octave, thus enabling a reduction of people in the Church and a greater level of safety for all. These celebrations will be held at 10:00am daily.

We wish to thank Gerard Thornton who donated the Poinsettia in memory of the late Arthur Hughes.

Because of the increased pastoral responsibility, the Franciscan Sisters of the Renewal are in need of a car. If you would like to be associated with this project of theirs, you may contact them at their Convent on the Dublin Road. They would like to take this opportunity to express thanks for all the support they have received from the parishioners. God Bless You All.
